A Worker Appreciates This

Wm. Morris, a resident of Florence, Oregon, says: "For the last 14 years my kidneys and bladder incapacitated me for all work. About eight months ago I began using Foley Kidney Pills, and they have done what other medicines failed to do, and now I am doing and feeling fine, I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills." Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. C. C. Bingham. Adv.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Locke—Follensby

The first June wedding of the season was solemnized on Wednesday evening when Miss Isabel Frances, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Follensby, was married to Ellsbree Denton Locke, of Waban, Massachusetts. The ceremony was performed at the bride's spacious home on Summer street before about 100 friends and relatives of both parties. The guests were met at the door by Miss Dorothea Clark and upstairs they were ushered to the dressing rooms by Miss Edith L. Stone. The guests were received by the parents of both parties, being presented to the hosts and hostesses by the ushers, Carl Herrick of Worcester, Mass., Denton Nutter of Newton Upper Falls, Mass., Bailey Follensby of New York and James Campbell of St. Johnsbury. Promptly at 8:30 the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" wafted from the hall, the piano being played by Miss Helen Wakefield, of Lyndonville. The ladies in waiting formed an aisle for the bride party who advanced in the following order: Rev. Dr. George W. C. Hill, the bride's pastor, the groom and his best man, Brewster Cook, of Waban, the ushers, the two bridesmaids, Miss Adine Lawler of McIndoes and Miss Ethel Goss, the maid of honor, Miss Maude E. Follensby, and the bride leaning on her father's arm. The double ring service was used and the couple stood under a floral arch of pink hollyhocks and ferns surmounted by a floral horseshoe. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride was charmingly gowned in pearl white chamuse with princess lace and crystal trimmings. Her bridal veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a neil rose chamuse gown overhung with shadow lace and rhinestone trimmings. A lovely bunch of sweet peas splendidly matched her dress. The bridesmaids wore pale yellow messaline and carried pink carnations. The bride's mother wore a pale lavender violet crepe meteor gown with shadow lace and pearl and rhinestone trimmings. Mrs. Locke wore a blue crepe de chine over a chantilly lace with pearl and rhinestone trimmings. The bride's going away gown was a blue eponge with hat to match.

Following the ceremony the guests extended hearty congratulations and best wishes to the bride and groom and were then ushered into the dining room, which was effectively trimmed with red and green. Here the ice cream was served by Miss Isabel F. Noyes and Mrs. Reginald W. Turner, the coffee was poured by Mrs. Frank Brooks and the punch was served by Mrs. A. G. Lomas of Sherbrooke. The waitresses were Miss Mary B. Carr, Miss Helen Wakefield, Miss Isabel Gaskill, Miss Grace Locke, Miss Edith L. Stone, Miss Beulah P. Johnson also assisted in the dining room. Following the wedding breakfast the guests went upstairs to leave their names in the guest books which were in charge of Mrs. Robert P. Clark and Mrs. John P. Puffer. They also had an opportunity to view the beautiful gifts which included sizable checks, several gold pieces, choice patterns of sterling silver in sets and individuals pieces, cut glass, vases, china and many other presents equally useful.

The guests from abroad included the groom's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Locke, Miss Lucy E. Locke and Brewster Cook of Waban, Dr. F. M. Morris of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Locke, Misses Ruth and Muriel, Denton Nutter and Miss Helen Nutter of Newton Upper Falls, Karl Herrick of Worcester, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lomas of Sherbrooke, Mrs. Roscoe Annis of Montreal, Miss Bertha C. Webster of Plymouth, N. H., Miss Edith L. Stone of Springfield, Bailey F. Follensby of New York, Mrs. Blanche Creighton of Brockington, Mrs. O. B. Johnson of Melrose Highlands.

The bride's gift to the maid of honor was a pendant of sapphire and pearls while her bridesmaids received a bar pin set with pearls. The groom presented the best man and each of the ushers with scarf pins.

Mr. Locke is connected with the firm of H. E. Locke & Co. of Boston and the bride has a host of friends in town where she has been active in our social and musical circles. They will be "at home" at 1775 Beacon Street, Waban, Mass., after October 15.

The Brilliant Stars of June
By the end of June, Mars, Venus, Saturn and Jupiter will all be morning stars, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is at all times the "Star" medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. A cold in June is as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other time, but not if Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is taken. It will surely head off the cold, and heal the inflamed membranes. The genuine in a yellow package. C. C. Bingham. Adv.
